The Eagle Project ANNUAL REPORT

A WORD president FROM THE

So many amazing things happened in the year 2022! I think it was the best year ever for The Eagle Project.

We worked with seven groups of adolescents, in four different centres of the youth prison with a total of 82 boys taking part in the project.

We won First place in the Brazilian Federation of Psychodrama Award, 2022 for our work in the youth prisons.

I was invited to lead a pilot project with a group of prison staff due to the high suicide rate among prison workers.

We celebrated 10 years of the project in the youth prison, with a special dinner in November.

Wallace and Tauan returned to the youth prison as guest speakers on several occasions and gave testimony that it really is possible to break the circle of violence and crime.

We have a waiting list of centres that would like us to begin the project, we have a great team ready and waiting, but we need financial resources for each new group we begin. Thank you so much if you are already supporting The Eagle Project. Your donations enable us to do what we do. If you would like to begin supporting the project, I would like to take this opportunity to invite you to contribute with a one-off or monthly donation, so we can continue to help many young boys and their families.

I want to especially thank The Eagle Project team, the staff of the youth prison and the adult prison system and all of you who support the project and pray for us so faithfully.

Together we really can make a difference!

God bless you.

Prize – Brazilian Federation of Psychodrama

We participated in the 23rd Brazilian Psychodrama Congress, where hundreds of psychodrama therapists and students from Brazil and other countries gathered to present their work and to share their knowledge and experiences. We were delighted to receive an invitation from the Federation to lead a psychodrama session. The room was full of professionals and students interested in our work and the project. Later the same day we were awarded 1st Prize for our work with psychodrama in the youth prisons. This was a huge achievement for The Eagle Project!

UP Project

UP Project - Uniting People, Uniting Purposes

In September we began a pilot project of weekly psychodrama workshops with prison directors and staff. The aim of this project was to find ways of addressing the high rate of mental health problems and suicide among employees of the prison system in the State of São Paulo. Cally led six sessions with the themes of stress, anxiety, oppression, anger, relationships and avoiding burnout. The aim for 2023 is to implement this project for staff working in five women's prisons in São Paulo. However, the project needs to be funded and government funding is not available.

A lesson on Restorative Justice

In September, Cally was invited to teach a lesson at USP (The University of São Paulo), to second- and third-year Law students with the title 'Restorative Practices behind Bars'. "It was a huge honour for me to teach this class. Now, we are working to develop a partnership between USP and the youth prison", says Cally. After learning more about The Eagle Project, a team from USP, led by Dr. Maurício Zanoide de Moraes, a professor at the university who invited Cally to teach the class, went to the youth prison and participated in a psychodrama session held at the centre. Along with the USP team was Dr. Alberto Silva Franco, considered one of the greatest professors of criminal law in Brazil and a retired judge of the Court of Justice of São Paulo.

Mentoring

The boys who take part in The Eagle Project while in the youth prison are given the opportunity to reflect on their past and make new choices for their futures. During the year 2022, Jhonaton Soares, one of our trustees and a volunteer of the project who was working as a manager in People Development at iFood held weekly online meetings with one of our boys while he was still in prison. Jhonaton offered coaching and mentoring sessions, with the aim of also teaching basic programming and I.T.

'Breaking the Chains' celebrates its 10th Birthday!

"I've never had a party like this in my life. It is the first time I have ever experienced so many people applauding me and praising me. It was a very moving moment in my life that will stay with me for eternity! I want to thank all the people who have contributed in some way to helping me. I'm very happy and very grateful!"

Wallace Gaspareto, one of the boys helped by the project, described the night in which we celebrated the project's 10th birthday. During the dinner we included his graduation party, as he finished his degree in Radiology just before the pandemic and was unable to graduate.

About 70 people were present at the dinner to give thanks to God for these last 10 years. Among them was Marcelo Pimentel, who is Wallace's sponsor and paid for his university course, giving Wallace a very important second chance. "I just want to say thank you for the opportunity to be part of this," Marcelo said. "Wallace to me is an example of overcoming difficulty, of someone with grit and determination to not be put off by all the prejudice he faces from society. He decided to be the first person in his family to complete a university degree. He also made the decision to not reoffend and is someone who fills me with pride. The credit is all his, he ran the race, made all the effort and earned this diploma. I am sure his life will be a big success."

For Cally, president and co-founder of the project, just seeing Wallace dressed in his graduation outfit, receiving applause, made everything worth it. "What a wonderful night of celebration of these 10 years of the Breaking the chains project!. I am extremely grateful that so many people participated in this event, showing their solidarity, believing together with us as a team that it really is possible to make a difference, with our teenagers going to university and pursuing their dreams.

In the last 10 years more than 300 teenagers have taken part in the project with over a thousand family members receiving help. Our challenge now is to keep the groups going and the team running. Please pray!

In February 2023, Wallace achieved another dream and opened his own barbershop.

Areté Award

'Do Palco para a Prisão' the Portuguese version of Cally's book 'Dancing with Thieves' won FIRST PRIZE in the autobiography category for South American Christian Literature!

"I didn't even know my book was in the running until I received a call from my publisher to say my book was in the final, and to my surprise, I won this award", Cally says. The book was chosen as the best book in the Biography/Autobiography category for 2020, 2021 and 2022.

The publication, which is both moving, fun and exciting, is already a success and has won the hearts of many readers. In 2024 the book will be made into a full-length cinema film, directed by the award-winning English film director, Dean Owen-Sims of Eternal Entertainment, who read the book and was conquered by Cally's story. Her second book 'A Love That Can't Be Contained' is also soon to be published. This time Cally has written a book of personal stories with challenging questions and a video at the end of each chapter, which can be read individually or as part of a group.
